

AMENDMENT TO THE OVERSIGHT PLAN
OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY
OFFERED BY REP. RASKIN

Under the heading "Full Committee," in the section titled "Protecting Congress' Constitutional Powers," strike the text and insert the following:

"The committee will conduct oversight to examine the separation of powers between the branches of government and to consider ways to restore and reestablish the powers and authorities granted to Congress in Article I of the Constitution, including the prerogative of Congress to consent to exceptions to the Foreign Emoluments clause, which prohibits any officer of the United States from accepting any gift, payment, or other financial benefit from any foreign government."
